South Bay at Mount Pleasant Sponsors Post and Courier 2021 Spring Book & Author Luncheon

Mount Pleasant, SC --- (4/12/2021)

South Bay at Mount Pleasant sponsored The Post and Courier's annual Spring Book & Author Luncheon on Wednesday, March 24th.

This annual event is the largest and most prestigious literary luncheon in the southeast. This year, the event was held virtually and featured international best-selling authors Adriana Trigiani and Lisa Scottoline. In addition to the luncheon, attendees were invited to drop off books at South Bay at Mount Pleasant which were then donated to the Charleston County School of the Arts library.

"South Bay at Mount Pleasant is thrilled to have participated in this charitable book drive over the past month. During the month of March, we collected over 200 books from South Bay Residents and neighbors in Mount Pleasant and donated the books to the Charleston County School of the Arts in North Charleston," says South Bay Sales & Marketing Director, Denise Devanney.

South Bay Life Enrichment Director, Lisa Smith, says, "Our Residents are always overjoyed to participate in any charitable event to help benefit the Low Country's needs." Lisa and South Bay Resident and Library Chair, Roberta Price, spent long hours sorting and organizing the many boxes of books that were donated. South Bay hopes to continue to give back to the community in the future.

South Bay at Mount Pleasant is a luxury retirement community that offers residents stunning surroundings, a beautiful, maintenance-free apartment home, an exceptionally fulfilling lifestyle, and a continuum of care in place should additional healthcare services be required through Shem Creek Health Center.
